Thanks to the talent of our faculty and staff, UNL is now ranked as one of the 100 top national research universities, public or private, and in the top 50 of all public universities. The university is No. 20 among national universities as a best school for veterans and is on the list of “A-Plus Schools for B Students.” The College of Business Administration rose to No. 51 on the list of best undergraduate business programs, a 21-point climb. Our College of Law was ranked No. 54 out of 194 institutions.

Other rankings confirm what we already knew—that Lincoln, the fourth largest city in the Big Ten, is a great home base for our university:

#1 U.S. City, Quality of Life (The Gallup-Healthways Well-Being Index, 2012)
#7 Best Downtown (Livability.com 2012)
#1 in America’s Healthiest Small Cities (Daily Finance 2014)
6th Best Place for Business and Careers (Forbes, 2014)
6th Best City for College Students (among cities with 250,000–1,000,000 residents) (American Institute for Economic Research, 2012)
5th Safest American City (Forbes, 2011)
Bicycle Friendly Community (The League of American Bicyclists, 2012)
Top 20 - America’s Thriving Cities (The Daily Beast, 2013)

In August 2014 we welcomed the second largest freshman class ever. Twenty-nine percent of our students are non-residents; 10 percent from other nations. Over 12 percent of the student body are students of color. UNL’s overall enrollment has grown by 15.4 percent since 2005. This has been achieved while concurrently increasing the quality of our incoming classes.

The momentum of Lincoln and the state are linked to the momentum of our university. We continue to build our university in structure, strength and stature, and to accelerate our university’s role in its key areas of teaching, research and outreach in order to enhance life in our state, nation and the world.
